

PRIVACY STATEMENT & WEBSITE TOS

July 2011

C Gardiner Photography and www.cgardiner.ca ('the website') statement of privacy to website visitors. This statement describes how we collect and use your information at C Gardiner Photography.

VISITOR PRIVACY

1. At no time, through the operation and use of the website, will any of your personal information be shared with third parties intentionally.
2. At no time during the use of the website on domain cgardiner.ca, will you be requested to provide personal or financial information.
3. In order to complete business transactions for contracted work, your personal or financial information may be collected by trusted third-parties through their own secure channels, and are subject to their privacy statement.
4. C Gardiner Photography will never sell, rent or exchange your personal information with other third-parties.
5. In order to provide a more rich and targeted online experience, the website collects generalized data about your visit, including but not limited to; your country of origin, the time you have spent on the website, and pages viewed.
6. Any and all interactions outside of the website's domain, including those linked from the website are no longer controlled or designed by C Gardiner Photography. Users will be subject to the corresponding domain's privacy statement.
7. C Gardiner Photography assumes no liability for any damages from the use or misuse of the website.

VISITOR RESPONSIBILITIES

1. All graphics and image content found on the website are all rights reserved, copyrighted ©Chris Gardiner 2005-2011. Unauthorized duplication in whole or in part is strictly prohibited by International Law.

Thank you,

Chris Gardiner